5. New Business

- Mount Allison strike

Whereas Faculty at Mount Allison University have been on strike since January 27th, and

Whereas the RFA has provided a cheque for $1,000 in support of their action as per the standing policy on donations

BIRT the executive approve a further $1,000 to be sent to MAFA in support of their job action. (Tucker-Scott/Todorow)

- Ryerson Brand Survey
- CAFE on Campus (Clarke)

BIRT the RFA executive adopts the following statement (Clarke/Tucker-Scott)

The Ryerson Faculty Association believes in upholding freedom of speech and in the right of others to hold views with which we do not agree. Nonetheless, the RFA shares the concerns of Ryerson Students' Union and supports the statement made by the RSU regarding the presence on campus of "the CAFE" a group associated with the radical American group A Voice For Men (AVfM). The RFA is concerned that the University provided free space and security coverage to this group and, as a result, this group is now publicly claiming that Ryerson University supports them.
